2018 THEME: “A Right Royal (Knees-Up) Wedding”

Create a hat based on your perception and research of a Right Royal Wedding. Shall your muse be a guest?, a bride? or possibly the Queen? Which Queen? Elizabeth the first or Elizabeth II or even Victoria? It's up to you! Just remember it is a Knees-Up affair!

PRIZES: Best Interpretation of Theme (one winner)
Best Workmanship (one winner)
Popular Vote (1st, 2nd, 3rd winners)

(We are lining up GREAT prizes...trust us, these are even better than in 2016!!!)

THE FINE PRINT:

- Hats (hats, fascinators, headpieces, etc) must have been made during 2018.
- Hats must be wearable.
- Limit of 1 hat per entrant.
- Must be in attendance at MMU 2018 to participate.
- True millinery supplies are highly encouraged, although some interpretative materials are acceptable. All millinery mediums are acceptable - straw, felt, wire, fabric, buckram, thermoplastics, etc.
- All hats must be presented to MMU organizers by 9am, Monday September 24, 2018. No exceptions.

PLEASE bring your entry to the Arrowmont Library (follow the ramp to the second level from the Registration area). The entries will be displayed from Sunday - Thursday at 12:00.

The entry form should be filled out succinctly in the space allowed. Please PRINT your information on the form so that judges can quickly & easily read your description. Do not write on the back or attach additional paper for more writing space, and NO photo or visual references etc are allowed. Let your hat do the talking.

As a gift to every entrant in the hat contest, Guy Morse Brown Hat Blocks will be providing a styrofoam mannequin head for display during the contest and it is yours to keep.

Hats can be shipped to Arrowmont ahead of time to be held until your arrival. You are responsible for all shipping costs to and from Arrowmont.

Your entry should be labeled with your name on the inside, although all hats will be displayed anonymously and are referenced by your Name tag registration # received upon arrival at MMU2018. Also, please mark center front (CF) on your hat with a small piece of tape labeled CF on the inside or pin on the outside crown.

Voting by all MMU attendees for their favorite will occur on Wednesday.

Hat Parade

Thursday September 27, 2018 at 11:30 all Hat Contest participants will report to the Library to collect and don their creation / entry. We will then Parade from the main building at 11:45 to the Dining Hall much to the delight of the Arrowmont Staff.

Awards will be announced in the dining hall after Lunch on Thursday September 27, 2018!

Good luck!
